OLYMPICS JUMP INTO FIRST PLACE

Petersburg Bowlers Set New High Mark in Bowling Tournament—Jay Burgess Was the Star Last Night—The Smashers Do Splendid Work for New Rollers.

The Olympic team of bowlers, from Petersburg, set a new mark in the Greater Richmond Bowling Tournament last night before one of the largest crowds of the week. The Olympics played like stars and went into first place by a good margin, taking the honors from their brother team, the Smashers, who made such a splendid showing on Wednesday night.

Jay Burgess was the star of the evening. He made some very difficult spins and also put up a great game. Talmage easily carried off the second honors with a 213 score.

The Smashers team did some fine work in last night's match and went into second place in Class C division. The Petersburg boys did remarkable work for being new rollers, and they deserve credit. Both the Olympic and the Smashers teams put up the best exhibition played so far in the tournament.

All of the players in the doubles showed class. Burgess and Talmage lost first place in the doubles by one pin. They made 1,006, while the record is 1,007, held by Walke and Fittz. Piers and Jones went into fifth place in the doubles.

TEAM WILL PLAY SEVENTEEN GAMES

William and Mary Faces Most Pretentious Schedule in Its Baseball History.

Williamsburg, Va., March 14.—The William and Mary baseball squad, under the direction of Coach Young, has been in the field for the past two weeks and has been making the last championship team has the outlook for a winning nine been so bright as it is at present. Seven of last year's team have reported for practice, and in addition there are many new men who promise to make things interesting for the veterans. Last year's battery, Shiers and Peachy, are showing good form, while Addison, Garnett and Shackelford, the Barton Heights star, give promise of good work on the mound. Combs, a new catcher, works well behind the bat, and may supplant Peachy, who can be used in the infield to best advantage. Captain Garth and Addison are assured of their old places in the garden, leaving right field open to the younger aspirants. In the infield Hubbard and Games will probably take their old positions, while for the vacant places there is a wealth of promising material.

The team opens with McGuire's School on March 22, and then follow games with Union Theological Seminary, Rock Hill College and the Richmond Blues. With this preliminary work the team will leave on its New York trip, remaining away one week. On this trip Fordham University, St. John's College, Columbia and New York University are played in succession. Never before has a Virginia college attempted such an extensive trip, but with sufficient pitching material and the reason why the trip should not be a success, even against the strongest teams in New York City. The team returns to Williamsburg on Saturday, April 12, and crosses bats with the Medical College of Virginia.

The complete schedule is as follows:
 March 22—McGuire's School, at Williamsburg.
 March 24—Union Theological Seminary, at Williamsburg.
 March 26—Rock Hill College, at Williamsburg.
 March 28—Richmond Blues, at Williamsburg.
 April 7—Fordham University, at New York City.
 April 8—St. John's College, at New York City.
 April 9—Columbia University, at New York City.
 April 10—New York University, at New York City.
 April 12—Medical College of Virginia, at Williamsburg.
 April 17—Roanoke College, at Williamsburg.
 April 19—Randolph-Macon (championship), at Ashland.
 April 20—Hampton-Sidney (championship), at Hampton-Sidney.
 April 21—Fifty-eighth Company, Fort Monroe, at Williamsburg.
 May 3—Randolph-Macon (championship), at Williamsburg.
 May 10—Richmond College (championship), at Williamsburg.
 May 14—Hampton-Sidney (championship), at Williamsburg.
 May 19—Richmond College (championship), at Richmond.

BASEBALL SEASON OPENS MARCH 20

WAGNERS MONOPOLIZE SHORTSTOP HONORS

Left to right—Honus Wagner, of the Pittsburgh Pirates, and Heinie Wagner, of the Boston Red Sox. During the last decade no one has been recorded as possessing the temerity to contest the unanimous vote of the entire population of the United States electing Honus Wagner the man who made Pittsburgh famous, the greatest shortstop of all time. This question being apparently settled beyond all dispute, the fans have been looking for a contest for the honor of being classed an second best shortstop in the game, only to discover that Wagner is the daddy of them all and that Wagner takes second best honors too. The Flying Dutchman, of the Buccaneers, according to consensus of opinion has an able understudy in Heinie Wagner, the crack shortstop of the Boston Red Sox, who is easily the best at his position in the American League and also tops all of those in the National League excepting the mighty Honus.

GRIM MAY FORFEIT HIS PEACE BOND

Charged by Mother-in-Law With Breaking Window in Her Home.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
 Lynchburg, Va., March 14.—Although he was under bond to remain away from the home, J. J. Grim, the well known baseball manager, is charged by his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary F. Gleason, with breaking a window open in her home this afternoon. Grim got away before the police could arrive in response to a telephone call. It is now expected that he will be haled into court under his peace bond, which was given last Saturday.

TO-DAY'S GAME TO START AT 4 O'CLOCK

The Blues Will Tackle the University College of Medicine Team at New Park.

Despite the continuous rain of yesterday, the Blues-Medical College baseball game at the new Broad Street Park will be pulled off without delay at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The Blues will put their first organized baseball team into action, and there will be a number of rooters out to encourage the first efforts of the Blues, while the medical boys will have their supporters, and the new ball park will present a scene of enthusiasm.

The members of both teams have been practicing for the past ten days for to-day's contest, and the players are in fine condition for the game. Many of the favorites of the local boys will be seen in action, and this being the first game of the season and the first time the new park has been thrown open to the public, a good sized crowd will doubtless be attracted to the park.

"Play ball" will be sounded by Umpire Westervelt at 4 o'clock, and the baseball season will then be on in earnest.

Crickets Play the Mapples.
 [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
 The Crickets and the Mapples will play a game of basketball at the gymnasium of the Young Woman's Christian Association to-night at 8:15 o'clock. The gallery will be open to visitors.

Ashland Boy Scouts Defeated.
 [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
 Fredericksburg, Va., March 14.—Fredericksburg High School second team defeated the Boy Scouts of Ashland at basketball here to-night, 48 to 11. The local team displayed superb teamwork.

SUSPENDED UNTIL INQUIRY IS MADE

Rulings Affect Two Jockeys, a Trainer and Owners of Two Racing Stables.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
 Juarez, March 14.—Important rulings affecting two well-known jockeys, a trainer and the owners of two stables racing here were made by the stewards to-day. Gross and Moleworth are the riders involved. The former was ordered suspended pending investigations of his ride on the horse Transparent, on March 10. Moleworth also was suspended until a full inquiry can be made of his ride on Abound, on the same date. Pontius & Boland, owners of Abound, and W. A. McKinney, trainer of Balcliff, were also ordered under suspension pending investigation of the last two races run by their horses. Abound won a race Thursday at good odds. Balcliff was third in the same race. Both horses showed wonderful improvement over their previous race, when they were both beaten off. Moleworth rode Abound the day he made such a bad showing. The further entries of Elizabeth Harwood and T. J. Judge, owned by J. C. Jones, were ordered refused by the stewards. The details of this case were not made public.

A high wind again operated against the racing this afternoon and made it a difficult matter to pick the winners. Upsets were frequent, and not a solitary favorite came home in front. Summaries:
 First race—four furlongs—Barbara Lane (7 to 2), first; Colonel McDougall (8 to 1), second; Stella Ward (3 to 2), third. Time, 1:12. Goddess Stokes, J. Nolan, Brevity, Robert Mantell, La Brela, Prues, Kittle and Rinfax also ran.
